This is the December, 2004, issue of the Tosspot, a publication of the Barony of Unser Hafen of the Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc. (SCA, Inc.). It is not a corporate publication of SCA, Inc., and does not delineate SCA, Inc. policies. The Tosspot is available from Mark Breuer, 1613 Leesdale Court, Ft. Collins, CO 80521, for $8 per year, $1.00 per issue. Make checks payable to: SCA-Unser Hafen.

Submission deadline is the 20th of the month for event announcements, articles, and artwork. Officers reports are due at officer's meeting.

from the baron and baroness

Greetings Unser Hafen!

Congratulations to our new Pencerdd, M'lady Rebecca who won our hearts with her beautiful words and song, and to his Lordship Zachariah for receiving the Flower of Chivalry at Coronation! Also congratulations to Their Royal Majesties Ibrahim and Illeana who have just ascended to the Stag throne! For those of you who haven't met Their Majesties please introduce yourselves to Them; they would love to meet you all.

There are many winter events on their way and we would encourage our populace to attend them to support our neighbors and our barony. December 3rd is Baronial Yule in Unser Hafen, December 4th is Hunters feast in Windkeep, and December 5th is war practice at the field house. We are also planning to travel to Caer Galen Midwinter on December 11th where we always have a good time!

We will be holding an autocrat's meeting the first Thursday in December at our Guild Gathering. This meeting is for anyone who will be autocrating, has thought about autocrating, or who has autocrated before and now and wants to be a mentor. We are still looking for autocrats for upcoming events so please let us or our seneschal know if you are interested in participating in the oldest SCA tradition.

Hurray for Unser Hafen and we look forward to seeing everyone soon.

In Service to the Dream,

Alexander and Mardanah

from the seneschal

Greetings to the Populace of Unser Hafen from your Seneschal, Nikolaos.

Everyone is invited to our annual Yule celebration on December 3rd (Friday night). That allows those who wish to also attend either Hunter's Feast (Windkeep) or Ch'ang-an Market (Dragonsspine) on the 4th, and then a regional fighter practice at the CSU Fieldhouse on Sunday the 5th. As always, any help you can provide to these events is appreciated.

It is my great pleasure to announce that Baron Theo has agreed to become my Deputy. Please feel free to offer him your congratulations and thanks for taking on this role.

May your holiday season be joyous, fun and relaxing... Or at least as much as you can make it..

In Service, I remain

Lord Nikolaos

from the Bofarrach seneschal

Greetings and Well Met, One and All!

I hope this season finds you well, sharing traditions with those who make you happiest.

Bofharrach's been a little busy lately! We've had a lot going on, and a number of changes. Here's the update:

We now are having Populace meetings! They are located at Lady Elizabeth's house, on the 4th Monday of the month on a quarterly basis. (January, April, July, Oct.) It's a potluck, so please bring a little somethin', somethin'. It's a chance just to do research, work on a project, watch stupid movies, gab, or volunteer for a group project and/or learn new skills!

We are also having officer's meetings. These are the 2nd Tuesday of the month, at Lady Elissent's. (7-10:00.) There will probably not be a meeting in December, but the populace is also welcome to attend these if they would like.

We are also going to be having an official event on April 30th called April Moos! Watch this space for more details! But, watch it closely...the site is strictly limited to 75 people, so get your reservations in early when details become available! We can tell you that it will be at Island Grove's Bunkhouse, on 607 N. 15th Ave.; in Greeley, CO 80631. And, we can also tell you that it is a dry site, and a candle-free site. (It is a historic monument. No candles.) Weather permitting, we will have fighting outdoors. We do know that this is going to be a silly event, but full details are not set in stone yet. Autocrats will be: Jeff Tester and Theresa Burke.

On a sad note: THL Moyra has resigned as Bofharrach's Exchequer. We thank her for her service, and wish her well. If anyone is interested in this position, please feel free to let Their Excellencies or myself know as soon as possible. There have been a couple of well qualified people who have expressed an interest, and with Domesday reports coming up fast we need to get this vacancy filled shortly. Please have your letter of application to Their Excellencies and myself by December 8th. Please remember, you must live within the Canton of Bofharrach's borders to fill this position. Thank you!

We are also going to be having a Toys for Tots tourney and practice on Dec. 1st., at our typical fighter site; Centennial Elementary School, 1400 37th St., Evans, CO (from 6:30-9) New, unwrapped toys worth $5 or more are encouraged, but are not needed to participate. There will be prizes for the winner of the heavy tourney, the best fencer during the practice, and there will also be a raffle amongst non-fighters!

In Service,

Lady Ekaterina Dimitriu

How our society works

by Nikolaos Demetriou ho Toxotes

Some people have expressed confusion about "how our society works". It is quite simple really.

We have all decided to make the SCA one of our hobbies. Whether it was because we liked the idea of putting on armor and hitting people (or being hit) with sticks, dressing up in costume and pretending we're someone else, or for the relative nobility and honor showed by others, we have all invested time and effort here.

But what have you invested in? Look at our name: The Society for Creative Anachronism. I'll go from back to front, just because it is easier.

An anachronism is something that belongs in a different time, like someone dressed in armor and using a sword. The creative part allows us to recreate medieval times as they "should have been", and not as they actually were. Plagues, Inquisitions and the like are not invited here.

But the most important word in our name is society.

In a Society, everyone must participate to make the institutions and culture, the "Dream", if you will, work. There is an amazing amount of roles and tasks that are part of who we are, and if those roles are left unfilled and those tasks are left undone, the Society (and each one of us), suffers.

Let me give you an example. Have you ever thought of what happens at a typical event in the SCA? There are the obvious roles: the autocrat, the feastocrat, troll, and the marshals but a lot more goes into making the event happen than just that handful of roles.

- The water bearers that make sure people don't collapse in the heat
- The good gentle that opens a door for someone more burdened, or better still, helps to carry the load as well
- The Crown, Coronets and Their retinue, who do so many things for us that I would not know where to begin
- The gentles that recommend others for awards, the scribes and artisans that create the beautiful scrolls and medallions given in Court
- The field heralds who keep everyone informed
- The fighters, fencers, and archers who both display their skill, and help others to learn
- The bards, singers and storytellers who both entertain and teach
- The cooks that assist in preparing the feast
- The servers who bring food to your table, and take the empty dishes back again
- The washers of dishes and cleaners of countertops
- The autocrats and officers of all levels, who make sure the Society does not run aground

- The teams of gentles that come early to set up the hall, or stay late to break it down again
- The lone gentle that, while walking to their car, picks up the piece of duct tape lying in the field, making sure we leave the site cleaner than we found it.

There are hundreds more roles, some taking weeks of someone's spare time, others that take no more than mere seconds. Some taking extraordinary skill and dedication, others that take no more than being in the right place, and being thoughtful enough to do it.

We each must do as we are able, or our Society could not exist. I have seen newcomers who pitch in to sew others wonderful garb, so that everyone has something to wear. I have seen Kings sweeping the floor when nearly everyone else had already gone home. No job is menial if it has to be done.

So, where do you contribute to our Society?

Come join Their Excellencies Ryan and Tana and celebrate good friends, good food and good song. Gather in beautiful al-Barran as we enjoy Christmas in the Time of the Troubadours. The hall is decorated with greenery, the Yule log burns, carols waft through the air, the spiced wine simmers, men whisper of Eleanor's famed beauty, women listen enraptured to tales of Richard in the Holy Land, and troubadours fill the hall with song. We take our cue from England and France in the twelfth and thirteenth centuries and the holiday traditions of that time.

Bards and troubadours will entertain you throughout the day with music and song. Vendors will be plying their wares. After court, enjoy European and Middle Eastern dancing. Join us early in the day to light the Yule Log and sing carols. THLord Gonner will host a gaming room in the Tavern area during the day and evening.

Since we are celebrating not only the season, but the Court of Love as well, all good gentles are encouraged to bring some token to reward the courtly behavior of a fellow reveler. In a similar vein, the finest dress and table settings will be acknowledged with suitable tokens. A delicious feast will be served at 3:00 p.m.

Caerthen Twelfth Night

A Celebration of the Perfoming Arts
January 8, 2005

In the time of Queen Elizabeth, nobles whiled away the long winter nights with plays, music, dancing and feasting. As the snow swirls outside, hearts are warm and spirits merry as the finest performers of the Barony and Kingdom display their talents for the delight of all.

Note that any alcoholic beverages given as gifts must be sealed, and must remain so until you are off of fairgrounds property. In addition, we ask that mundane soft drink containers be kept out of sight -- please transfer your drinks to your mug or goblet and stash the empty where it can't be seen. Thanks!
